We said no, at least not unless he could bring us the affidavits of John M. Palmer and Henry Watterson, to show that the Father of his country washed his neck at least twice during the revolutionary war, and the tint on the neck band of the relic was caused by its being used as a washer for the lynch pin of a continental cannon. How the scenes of other days crowd cound us, at the mention of that welcome time. What a heat of buried pleasures arise from the grave of remembrance when that word isspoken. Its very sound unlocks the secret treasures of momory, and shows to the eye of affection the lovely and beautiful that have passed with youth down the river of time. With youth down the river of time. With youth down the river of time. With sectorspective glance we beloud the past, its music is in our ears. There has been no improvement in general business during the past week, nor was it expected that there would be; the demand for all the leading articles is still of a hand-to-mouth character, as it always is the last month of the year. Flour and Wheat continue firm with a good local trade, but there has been no change in prices since the date of our last general report. The only new features in Groceries is that Coflec and Sugars have stiffened up again. The Hog product continues dull, and prices continue easy. For Butter, Eggs and Poullry, there is a fair demand, but no important change in pricest or report.
